

Jewish Community Council of Victoria condemns Nazi graffiti

The Jewish Community Council of Victoria (JCCV) condemns the defacing of campaign posters displayed by candidates in the upcoming Federal election, including the member for Kooyong, Josh Frydenberg, and the Greens candidate for McNamara, Stephanie Hodgins-May.

JCCV President Jennifer Huppert said “The use of swastikas and other offensive reminders of the Nazi regime are never acceptable, and have no part in our political discourse.”

That this has occurred in the week after we have commemorated both the murder of six million Jews by the Nazis during the Holocaust, and the sacrifices made by Australians defending our democracy during World War 2, is a reminder that that we must be vigilant in the protection of our hard won freedoms, and the democratic, multicultural society in which we live.
